Students should be prepared to play one or two pieces, with total performance time limited to 4 minutes per student for beginners to lower intermediate repertoire, and 6 minutes for upper intermediate to advanced repertoire.

Each music teacher may send one to three students per concert. Acceptance will be on a first come basis.

Students are asked to bring a package of favorite cookies or another treat, to be shared at the reception. Drinks will be provided.

Young Performers of Atlanta Student Application Form

These concerts, sponsored by the Atlanta Music Club, are available to students of all ages, all instruments (including voice), and all levels of playing, who wish to gain experience in public performance.

These performances are also an opportunity for students to learn and practice the proper etiquette for attending concerts and recitals, showing respect for their colleagues by listening quietly and developing poise as young musicians.
